

AMENDED AND RESTATED ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF COLORAMA

A NON-PROFIT CORPORATION

Pursuant to the provisions of the Colorado Nonprofit Corporation Act, COLORAMA, a Colorado nonprofit corporation, hereby amends and restates its articles of incorporation. These articles correctly set forth the provisions of the articles of incorporation, as amended, they have been duly adopted as required by law, and supersede the original articles of incorporation and all amendments.

ARTICLE ONE
Name of Corporation

The name of the corporation is COLORAMA, which is an abbreviation for Colorado Ayurvedic Medical Association.

ARTICLE TWO
Period of Duration

The corporation shall have perpetual existence.

ARTICLE THREE
Nonprofit Purposes and Powers

3.1 Nonprofit Purposes. The purposes and objectives for which the corporation is organized are as follows: to be an organization representing the Ayurvedic profession in Colorado and nationally; to preserve, protect, improve, and promote the philosophy, knowledge, science, and practice of Ayurveda for the benefit of humanity; to provide leadership within the Ayurvedic profession; to promote a positive vision of Ayurveda and its holistic approach to health and wellness; to cultivate cordial relations among Ayurvedic practitioners in Colorado and nationally; to encourage the adoption of proper legislation; to develop resources for Ayurvedic practitioners; and to provide educational opportunities and support to Ayurvedic professionals.

3.2 Exempt Status. The corporation is organized primarily as a business league pursuant to Section 501(c)(6) of the Internal Revenue Code (the "Code") or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

3.3 Distribution of Net Earnings. No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of any director, trustee, member, or officer of the corporation or any other private individual (except that the corporation, in furtherance of its purposes, may pay reasonable compensation for services actually performed and may make reasonable payments for expenses incurred on behalf of the corporation). No director, trustee, member, or officer of the corporation, or any private individual, shall be entitled to share in any distribution of any of the corporate assets on dissolution of the corporation or otherwise.

3.4 Distribution on Dissolution. Upon the dissolution of the corporation, the assets of the corporation shall be applied and distributed, pursuant to the provisions of the Colorado Nonprofit Corporation Act or its successor provision. After the liabilities of the corporation have been discharged or provided for, the remaining assets may be distributed either (1) to an organization or organizations that are then qualified as exempt under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code or its successor provision, or (2) to an organization operating as a business league within the meaning of Code Section 501(c)(6) or its successor provision. Any assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of pursuant to order of the District Court for the County of Boulder.

3.5 Powers. The corporation shall have all of the rights, privileges, and powers now or hereafter conferred on nonprofit corporations by the laws of the State of Colorado. The corporation shall have and may exercise all powers necessary or convenient to effect any of the purposes for which the corporation was organized. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles of incorporation, the corporation shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(6) of the Code or its successor provision.

ARTICLE 4 Membership

The corporation shall have members. The classes of membership and the qualifications and rights of the members of each class shall be set forth in the bylaws. The membership shall only have voting rights as specified in the bylaws.

ARTICLE 5 Indemnification

The corporation shall indemnify any current or former board member or officer to the full extent permitted by Colorado law. The corporation may indemnify any other person who is threatened or made a party to any proceeding by reason of the fact that the person is or was a board member, officer, employee, or agent of the corporation.

ARTICLE 6 Limitations on Liability

6.1 Breach of Fiduciary Duty. The personal liability of a board member to the corporation or its members for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a board member is limited to the full extent provided by Colorado law, including C.R.S. Section 7-128-402.

6.2 Obligations of Corporation. The board members, officers, employees, and members of the corporation shall not, as such, be liable on its obligations.

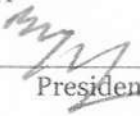

6.3 Wanton and Willful Acts. The board members of the corporation shall not be liable for actions taken or omissions made in the performance of corporate duties except for wanton and willful acts or omissions in accordance with C.R.S. Section 13-21-116. The board members, officers, and trustees of the corporation shall be immune from civil liability in accordance with C.R.S. Section 13-21-115.7.

The board of directors, by unanimous written consent, adopted a resolution approving these amended and restated articles. No members were entitled to vote on the approval of these amended and restated articles. These amended and restated articles of incorporation thus received approval as required by the Colorado Nonprofit Corporation Act and the bylaws of the corporation.
